Makin' Movies Workshop

Team Building & Team Dynamics

Helping diverse teams work together more productively

Productivity through effective engagement

Makin' Movies (Team Building & Team Dynamics) Workshop

Helping diverse teams work together more productively

Outcomes

Participants will have a greater understanding of the dynamics of teams, the ways in which their colleagues prefer to communicate, and how to maximise team productivity by working more cooperatively. They will be more prepared to engage with others, to embrace diversity and to tolerate some of the differences that they may currently perceive as weaknesses.

Audience

Teams and groups of people that need to work productively together. Teams from 6-40 people can be accommodated in a single event. The event balances a strong element of fun with relevant business learnings.

Workshop elements

Short theory sessions around the drivers of team productivity. The bulk of the day is taken up by a team based experiential exercise "Makin' Movies". This is finished off with a presentation of awards.

Duration

The workshop is a 1 day event that can stand alone or be part of a larger event (e.g. Team Retreat, Kick-off session, Project Launch). Presentation of team awards can be extended into the evening over drinks or dinner.

Key Topics

- Drivers of Team Productivity – Common Mission, Engagement, Value in Diversity.
- Makin' Movies – Team based Experiential Exercise
- Presentation of Team Award (Oscars)

Other information

JHW supplies all equipment and expertise to run the experiential exercise, including (for each team): Digital Video Recorders, Tripods, Apple Mac iMovie suite, and as shared resources some props and costumes (part of the challenge is for teams to source their own), the guidance and expertise of an accomplished Film Director and expertise in the Apple iMovie suite.

"Better morale leads to better productivity. Client cooperation is a product of strong engagement and this results in tough and complex issues being resolved quickly and more effectively."

John Williams
Founder and Principal, JHW

Comments from Previous Participants

Found the team-building activity particularly helpful in breaking down the barriers with people with whom I normally don't interact much.

It was an innovative way of displaying team building, and most importantly, had a huge element of fun. Thanks and well done. It was also a logistically challenging day, and the preparation prior to and organisation on the day appeared well planned.

It was a refreshing new spin on team building and it was interesting to see each groups perspective on the key components which create a high performing team. The activities set for the day also cleverly ensured that we lived those values. Thanks John and Ralph for such a fun and entertaining day, I will be spreading the word!!!

Great fun and team building plus got us to think.*

Good session. We definitely achieved the "Team" and "Fun" objectives, we'll let you know whether we achieved the 3rd objective in 2015!*

Optimal mix of fun and getting down to business.*
